The Offering

CB Metropolitan Commercial Ltd. is pleased to offer, under Power of Sale, two 100% freehold interests located at 62-66 James St N, Hamilton, Ontario ("the Property"). This opportunity features two two-and-a-half-storey mixed-use buildings ideally situated in the heart of Hamilton's city centre.

The Property offers approximately 8,485 square feet of gross floor area, showcasing high ceilings throughout. It includes three at-grade retail units (3,948 sq. ft.) and 4,537 sq. ft. of flexible space, ideal for office or various residential uses. With the possibility to expand the floor plate from 2.5 to 3 storeys, the Property presents a unique opportunity to further enhance its value and income potential.

Located in a rapidly revitalizing area experiencing significant development, the Property offers excellent potential for repositioning or expansion. Its flexible zoning allows for a variety of uses, enabling adaptation to evolving market conditions. Surrounded by a growing mix of retail, dining, and cultural amenities, the Property is well-positioned to attract quality tenants and capitalize on favorable market dynamics.

The Property is currently being offered for a consideration value of $1,950,000.

Contact the listing team today to explore this exceptional opportunity!

Disclaimer: The Property is currently unfinished and is being sold as-is, where-is.

Property Highlights

Corner Presence

Situated on a hard corner, maximizing exposure for retail tenants and future development potential.

Downtown Hamilton

Centrally located in a thriving urban core with access to key amenities, businesses, and entertainment.

Major Redevelopment Area

The area is experiencing substantial development, driven by rapid gentrification and economic growth.

Rental Upside

Area's significant rent growth and population expansion, drives demand for residential and commercial space.

Public Transit

Well-connected by multiple public transit lines, including a nearby GO Terminal.

Mixed-Use Building

Zoned for retail, office, and residential uses, offering multiple revenue streams and long-term investment flexibility.

Highly Desirable Location

The Property is located within Hamilton's Urban Growth Centre (UGC), a designated area targeted for intensification, economic development, and urban renewal. James Street North, is a key corridor within this growth zone. The area has experienced substantial revitalization over the past two decades, making it one of Hamilton's most vibrant districts. The Downtown Hamilton UGC is a critical hub for real estate investment, infrastructure improvements, and cultural transformation.

Key Focuses of Hamilton's Urban Growth Centre

Increased Density & Population Growth:

- The UGC encourages high-density residential and mixed-use developments. Several new condominium and apartment projects have emerged – driving demand for commercial spaces

Transit:

- The neighborhood benefits from major transit expansion, including the upcoming Light Rail Transit (LRT) project and proximity to Hamilton GO Centre and West Harbour GO Station, enhancing accessibility and property values.

Culture & Commercial Hub:

- James Street North is home to independent businesses, trendy restaurants, and a vibrant arts scene. Events like Supercrawl draw thousands of visitors annually, increasing foot traffic and retail potential.

Government Incentives:

- Investors can take advantage of government incentives, such as grants and tax benefits under the Downtown Hamilton Secondary Plan, supporting the adaptive reuse of older buildings. The city actively encourages development through zoning changes and infrastructure improvements.

Properties like 62-66 James Street North offer opportunities to reposition vacant units for retail, office, or residential use in a high-demand market.

Nearby Developments

Student Rentals

The property is well-suited for student housing, benefiting from strong rental demand in Downtown Hamilton's UGC. Adjacent to the 21-storey, 384-unit William Thomas Rental Tower by Fengate, it offers a prime opportunity for investors looking to capitalize on rising market rents, transit access, and ongoing development.
